

2 percent Rise In Brisbane House Prices Over May

June, 2021

Brisbane house prices jump yet again

Brisbane's housing boom continued apace last month, with home values across the city climbing another 2 per cent on average in just 31 days.

Over May, Brisbane experienced a further 2 per cent price rise, taking it to 10 per cent annual growth.

Values in the capital city have increased 6.2 per cent in the past three months, with recent reports indicating further growth, as May outperformed April.
